Quincy is a very nice older gelding who is quiet under saddle and is ready to be adopted as a pleasure horse. He would make someone a good "first" horse. Quincy has some arthritis so he won't be suitable for long trail rides but he would love an "occasional" trail ride. He gets along well with other geldings and mares, is very sweet, and loves attention.

For more information on Quincy or any of the other horses at the Kentucky Equine Humane Center, visit <http://www.kyehc.org/>.
