

Try it on

December 26, 2008

Wait! Hold on before you hastily rip the tags off any garments or apply any leather care products to new tack. First make sure you first check the size, fit and appropriateness of any horsey gifts you were fortunate to receive. That means that apparel must fit you and tack must fit your horse. If exchanges are necessary, it'll all be so much simpler if everything still looks as it did when Santa dropped it down your chimney.
