

2008 Photo Contest Honorable Mentions

Horse Illustrated congratulates all of its 2008 photo contest winners and runners-up.

The following pictures, in no particular order, received honorable mentions from our judge, world famous professional equine photographer Bob Langrish. Click here for Bob's photography tips >> Mary Miller-Jordan of Kelly, N.C.

Bob's comments: "This is a great concept, but it would have been more enhanced if you used a telephoto lens instead of a wide-angle lens, and stuck the person [and horse] in the middle." Barry Henry of Louisiana

Bob's comments: "This is being in the right place at the right time and having a great camera. You can't plan this picture." Lori Grimes of St. Cloud, Minn.

Bob's comments: "This is a great picture. I hope you didn't get run over, as I see you used a wide-angle lens. The photo is sharp and has impact." Beth Wieland of Plano, Texas

Bob's comments: "I try to get this position myself when I'm taking mare and foal pictures. It takes a lot of patience. Well done." Brooke Hall of Columbus, Ohio

Bob's comments: "Great lighting, but the picture would have been better if the horse was coming toward the camera." Shannon Albert of Denison, Texas

Bob's comments: "This picture has a terrific 'awww' factor." Rebecca Mogielski of New Brighton, Pa.

Bob's comments: "I love the carrot as the snowman's nose idea to get the shot. I might use it myself. Good use of the flash to get [proper] exposure." Lois Overton of Thetford Ctr., Vt.

Bob's comments: "This is a lovely picture. It's the type I try to get. If only the sun had been shining." Kelly Kassander of Mequon, Wis.

Bob's comments: "This is a great reflection picture--very sharp and evenly balanced." Karen Smith of Church Hill, Tenn.
