

A Good Scratch

A 10-minute scratching session with no strings attached will win your horse's heart.

12-06-2007

I think we can all agree that a good scratch is worth its weight in gold. Notice if your horse tightens his tail and muscles against your touch – can you get him to relax and let you move the dock from side to side? A 10-minute scratching session with no strings attached will win your horse's heart! Write about the results in your log.
