

It's a Dog's World

The horse world is also a dog world. Riders share their favorite dog breeds by discipline.

March 2007

Horse people and dogs just go together. You almost can't have one without the other. Looking deeper than that, you'll find certain dogs seem to go with certain horse people.

No matter what the discipline, typical equestrian dog breeds tend to be the low-maintenance variety. What is it that draws riders from certain disciplines to the dogs of a certain breed, and why do some equestrians buck the breed-discipline stereotype altogether?
