

Must Love Dogs ... and Horses

Yes, your canines and equines can get along.

By Lisa Munniksma

July 2007

In nature, dogs and horses would not be pals. It's through domestication and humans' sometimes-unreasonable wishes that they are asked to coexist in today's barnyards. With effort from the human handler, a dog can learn that horses are not to be chased, stalked or barked at. It's that effort, though, that so many people struggle with. If you own equines and canines, and are coping with compatibility issues, here are some training tips to help everyone in the barn get along.
