

Behind the Lens at World Cup

Las Vegas is famous for its hub of high priced hotels and casinos awash in neon, but recently it became famous for something else: hosting the FEI World Cup Finals.

By Cindy Hale

More than a horse show, participating countries field teams in dressage and showjumping over a few intensely competitive days. Although the championships are held each year, usually hopscotching around Europe, this is only the second time they've come to Las Vegas.

For the full article, pick up the July 2007 issue of HORSE ILLUSTRATED.

Do you like this excerpt? Subscribe Now to read more like it.

Click Here for a HorseChannel wrap-up on the results of the event.