

124th National Horse Show Underway

Top hunter, jumper and dressage horses and riders from around the nation gather in Wellington, Fla.

12-05-2007

The 124th National Horse Show and Family Festival, held at the Palm Beach Polo Equestrian Club in Wellington, Fla. begins today. The show, which runs Dec. 5-9, features some of the best hunter, jumper and dressage horses and riders in the country.

High caliber competition at the National includes the Show Jumping Hall of Fame Jumper Classic Series Championship Finals, which invites the top riders from the Eastern and Western standings to compete together and face-off for victory. Additionally, the $15,000 Show Jumping Hall of Fame Series Junior and Amateur-Owner Jumper National Finals will take place Dec. 9, where the very best amateur-owner riders will compete for championship honors, with the junior classic following.

The 124th National Horse Show competition highlights include:

- The $5,000 Palm Beach Post National Welcome Stake, CSI (Dec. 5)
- The $15,000 NHS Speed Classic, CSI (Dec. 6)
- The Zada Enterprises, LLC 6th Annual Dressage at the National (Dec. 7-9)
- The $25,000 NHS Jumper Classic for the Rolex/USEF National Show Jumping Championship, presented by Equine Motorcoach, CSI (Dec. 7- evening competition)
- The $25,000 National Horse Show Hunter Championship (Dec. 8)
- The $10,000 NHS Speed Stake, CSI (Dec. 8)
- The $15,000 Show Jumping Hall of Fame Series Junior and Amateur-Owner Jumper National Finals (Dec. 9)
- The $80,000 Young Jumper Championships® International Finals (Dec. 9)
- The $100,000 NHS Grand Prix FEI World Cup™ for the Rolex/USEF National Show Jumping Championship, presented by Equine Motorcoach (Dec. 9)

For more information, visit www.stadiumjumping.com.