

Newsire

Stay up-to-date with the latest horse news from all around the country (03-07-07).

03-07-2007

UConn lifts quarantine on horse herd

After more than a month with no new cases of equine herpes, officials at the University of Connecticut have lifted a quarantine of the 80-horse herd, the Hartford Courant reports. Read more >>

Wellington horse show feud continues

Real estate investor Mark Bellissimo fired another shot Tuesday in his ongoing feud with Stadium Jumping, Inc., the company that produces Wellington's premiere horse shows, the Sun-Sentinel reports. >

Horse sense & sensitivity

An environment that agrees with their horses is one reason people have been moving away from the metro St. Louis region at a record pace, the Suburban Journals reports. Read more >>

Is horse slaughter in the U.S. near an end?

In this special by Jason Shandler, ESPN looks at the current status of the horse slaughter debate, from ESPN.com. Read more >>