

NewsWire

Stay up-to-date with the latest horse news from all around the country (03-21-07).

03-21-2007

World's Smallest Horse to Raise $1M

At just a hair over 17 inches tall, the world's smallest horse has a big mission: to raise $1 million for children's charities this year, WXIA TV (Atlanta) reports. Read more >>

Woman charged with selling another's horse

A 64-year-old woman has been charged with fourth-degree grand larceny, a felony, after a 7-year-old quarter horse that had been placed at her stables was reportedly sold without the owner's approval, Star-Gazette News (N.Y.) reports. Read more >>

More wild horses caught at Jarita Mesa

Warmer temperatures have allowed the Carson National Forest to resume a wild horse roundup on the forest's Jarita Mesa wild horse territory, the Santa Fe New Mexican reports. Read more >>