

HorseChannel Newswire

Zero-tolerance slaughter policy at Suffolk Downs Wild Mustang advocate blasts BLM's latest euthanasia proposal; U.S. competitors named for Vaulting World Championships

July 3, 2008

Equine Welfare

Suffolk Downs begins zero-tolerance slaughter policy

Suffolk Downs has established a new policy holding trainers accountable when their horses are sold for slaughter, from Thoroughbred Times. Read more >>

The Wild Horse Is Us

And advocate of the American West's mustangs blasts a proposed government policy to cull the herds. Read more >>

Seized horses set for auction block

More than two dozen race horses confiscated during a raid at an illegal horse track in southern Oklahoma will go on the auction block later this month, from NewsOK. Read more >>

Equestrian Sport

The Vaulting World Prepares for a Class Act

The FEI World Vaulting Championships are just a month off, to be held at the Brno Fairgrounds in the Czech Republic from July 29 to August 3, in conjunction with the FEI European Junior Championships, from the USEF. Read more >>

USEF Names Team and Individuals for 2008 Vaulting World Championships

The United States Equestrian Federation (USEF) has approved the following three individuals and three alternates for the 2008 Vaulting World Championships to be held in Brno, Czech Republic July 29-August 3, from the USEF. Read more >>

HITS Saugerties Wraps up a Fantastic Spring Circuit

Thousands of exhibitors flocked to upstate New York for three exciting weeks of competition in the beautiful Hudson Valley for the HITS Saugerties Spring Circuit from Wednesday, May 28 to Sunday, June 15, from the USEF. Read more >>

Human Interest

Dressage rider Amy Stovold swaps horses for racecars to improve her riding

Dressage rider Amy Stovold will be swapping horses for a racing car next week in a form of sports psychology, from Horse and Hound. Read more >>

Horses inspire landmark sculpture

An artist aiming to create the world's largest horse sculptures as part of a project in central Scotland has met his equestrian models, from the BBC. Read more >>