

New FEI Website

Offers information about current and past Olympic Games

August 8, 2008

The latest news about the Olympic Games in Hong Kong as well as information and photos from previous Games is available at the new FEI Olympic website, www.fei.org/olympics

On the site, you can check out a list of competitors, see a timetable of events, and browse through historical records on every Olympic fixture since the 1912 Games in Stockholm.

Once the Games are underway, there will be live online results for every competitor.

The site includes information on news, history and results, officials and anti-doping, and more.
