

HorseChannel Newswire

Rescue volunteer plans to write a book about neglected Mustangs; Rare Przewalski horse born at Australian zoo; NYC police horses will be stabled under luxury condominiums

June 23, 2009

Equestrian Sport

Wet Ring, Wet Horses, Wet Riders Conclude Day Three of 2009 Collecting Gaits Farm/USEF Festival of Champions
After Friday's reprieve, the rain returned for day three of the 2009 Collecting Gaits Farm/USEF Festival of Champions, being held at the U.S. Equestrian Team headquarters. From DressageDaily. Read more >>

Chattahoochee Hills to Host 2010-2012 United States Eventing Association American Eventing Championships
The United States Eventing Association (USEA) is pleased to announce that its Board of Governors has awarded the 2010-2012 USEA American Eventing Championships (AEC) to Chattahoochee Hills Eventing in Fairburn, GA. From USEF. Read more >>

In Other News

W. Neb. woman plans to write about horse rescue
After more than 200 horses were rescued from a western Nebraska ranch, one woman says she plans to write a book about it. From KTIV. Read more >>

Przewalski horse foal
"They're one of the most beautiful species on the planet in my opinion. Up until the middle of last year they were extinct in the wild." From ABC.net.au. Read more >>

BLM sets wild horse roundup
Federal officials are planning a massive roundup of nearly 1,000 wild horse later this year in an effort to reduce populations on Wyoming rangelands, according to Bureau of Land Management officials. From The Casper Tribune. Read more >>

3 horses at federal corrals shot
The fatal shooting of three horses at federal corrals in Rock Springs is under investigation. From KXMB. Read more >>

The Neighbors Just Love Carrots
Modern maps call it Clinton, but in the late afternoon, Midtown Manhattan's far western edge might be better described as the Circle NYC Ranch. From The New York Times. Read more >>

BLM mulls options for mustangs
Documents obtained from the Bureau of Land Management through the Freedom of Information Act that detail management options which include destroying animals have outraged wild horse advocates. From Contra Costa Times. Read more >>

Yesterday's News >>