

HorseChannel Newswire

NRHA hosts reining clinic in Europe; Boston Police Department makes plan to reclaim police horses; Enter your Morgan in a judging contest on Facebook

June 24, 2009

2010 World Equestrian Games

Cincinnati/N. Ky. airport to park horses for equestrian event

In 2010, hundreds of international travelers will be parking their horses at the Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky International Airport. From Business Courier. Read more >>

Equestrian Sport

Expert Training for Reiners in Europe

Two of the world's top NRHA Professionals will host the first ever National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) Regional Clinic in Europe to benefit the National Reining Horse Youth Association (NRHyA). From NRHA. Read more >>

Equine Welfare

Starving Horse Abandoned In Metro

Someone abandoned a starving horse this weekend in the metro. Halfway Home Pet Adoptions in Kansas City said the animal was put into a dog pen sometime Sunday. From Fox4KC. Read more >>

Five malnourished horses returned to their owners

Five horses taken away from their owners a little more than a month-and-a-half ago were picked up in a trailer Tuesday morning and taken back home to their farm near the Pender-Onslow county border. From Star News Online. Read more >>

In Other News

Horse injured at last year's Reno Rodeo is nursed back to health

In a frightening accident at last year's Reno Rodeo, a pair of horses ridden by members of the Reno Rodeo Flag Girls Drill Team collided at full speed in the middle of the arena and in front of a grandstand filled with fans. From The Reno Gazette-Journal. Read more >>

Plan In Works To Recall Boston Police Horses

Boston police horses will soon be gone from the streets of Boston, but WBZ has learned it may not be for good. From WBZ TV. Read more >>

Horse Judging Contest on Facebook

With October fast approaching, youth from across the country are preparing for the Grand National & World Championship® Youth Judging Contest. From AMHA. Read more >>

Yesterday's News >>