

HorseChannel Newswire

Arizona Governor signs bill to ban horse tripping, create registry of equine rescues; Warm Springs tribe refutes equine slaughterhouse story; Police horses pay visit to Kansas girl in hospital

July 25, 2009

2010 World Equestrian Games

2010 Alltech FEI World Equestrian Games Announces AQHA as the Official Reining Breed Sponsor
The World Games 2010 Foundation Inc. today announced the American Quarter Horse Association as the Official Reining Breed Sponsor. From AQHA. Read more >>

Equestrian Sport

Johnson living dream in Lexington

Two years ago, at the behest of her mother, Paulena Johnson scribbled a list of goals onto a sheet of paper. From Tri-Cities.com. Read more >>

Equine Welfare

'Horse friendly' legislation signed in Arizona

Arizona Gov. Jan Brewer signed legislation to create a registry of equine rescue facilities and a public list of those facilities. From DVM360. Read more >>

Native Americans proved not to be proponents

A prominent equestrian author, R.T. Fitch, has exposed information reported in an Associated Press article as bogus. From HarnessLink. Read more >>

In Other News

Horses pay a call on a young horse lover at Children's Mercy Hospital

Jordan Bunnell happily talked Thursday about the things she loves: reading the Baby-Sitters Club books, listening to country-pop singer Taylor Swift and being with her quarter horse, Dollar. From The Kansas City Star. Read more >>

Adopt a Horse

The U.S. Department of Interior's, Bureau of Land Management (BLM) will offer approximately 40 wild horses ranging from yearling to 5 years old, on August 7 - 8, 2009, to potential adopters at the Interstate Center, located at 2301 West Market Street, in Bloomington. From Heartland Connection. Read more >>

Kids, horses face loss of "a healing" ranch in Douglas County

The Zoe Sky Ranch & Rescue, a Douglas County nonprofit that helps kids and horses, must find a new home for its equine therapy program. From The Denver Post. Read more >>

Yesterday's News >>