

HorseChannel Newswire

National Reining Horse Association becomes official WEG sponsor; Pryor Mountain mustangs available for adoption; US Hunter/Jumper Association annual meeting planned for Decemeber

September 17, 2009

2010 World Equestrian Games

National Reining Horse Association Sponsors the 2010 Alltech FEI World Equestrian Games; Leads to Major Addition in Games Event Schedule

The National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) and the World Games 2010 Foundation announced the NRHA's sponsorship of the Alltech FEI World Equestrian Games. From USEF. Read more >>

In Other News

Farm Owner Offers Horse Riding Space

A horse riding ban in Breaux Bridge is now leaving dozens of the city's kids, and horse riding organizations, looking for somewhere to ride. From KATC. Read more >>

Riding a horse is a treat, and treatment

As a commercial mortgage lender, Jessica Moore went to work every day wearing suits and skirts, and sat in a cubicle, dreaming of something more. From The Philadelphia Inquirer. Read more >>

Pryor Mountain horses up for adoption

Fifty-seven Pryor Mountain wild horses will be put up for adoption on Sept. 26, the Bureau of Land Management announced. From The Billings Gazette. Read more >>

Polo team struggles to house horses

Since the closure of the nearly century-old Yale Armory, an athletic facility located on Central Avenue, on Sept. 2, the Yale polo team has been scrambling to house their 15 homeless horses. From The Yale Daily News. Read more >>

Make Plans to Attend the 2009 United States Hunter Jumper Association Annual Meeting

Join the United States Hunter Jumper Association (USHJA) at the 2009 Annual Meeting held in St. Petersburg, FL, December 7-10. From USEF. Read more >>

Yesterday's News >>