

HorseChannel Newswire

Rescued Florida horses need homes; 40-year-old therapy horse recognized in AARP magazine; Pony visits the hospital after escaping from pasture

September 22, 2009

Equine Welfare

Animal Services looking for new homes for 2 dozen rescued horses

Nearly two dozen horses that were rescued in August need new homes. From Ocala.com. Read more >>

In Other News

I-Team: BLM and Wild Horse Advocates Working Together for Adoption Day

In general, wild horse advocates don't get along too well with the Bureau of Land Management. From Las Vegas Now. Read more >>

New Report "U.S. Equine Market: Feed, Health Care and Services for Horses" available through Aarkstore Enterprise

There are approximately 10.5 million equines in the United States, which are used primarily for recreation and entertainment. These horses are responsible for generating over $40 billion per year in spending. From PR News. Read more >>

Horse has a special sense

Mr. Kid Bar, the elder statesman at Cedar Creek Therapeutic Riding Center, moves with the gentle grace of a horse who is simply content to be groomed, fussed over and fed moistened grain. From The Columbia Tribune. Read more >>

Horse unhurt in Central Park cab crash

An out of control cabby, who was reportedly suffering from a seizure plowed into a horse drawn carriage at the feet of Central Park sending two people to the hospital, police said. From The New York Post. Read more >>

Pony found inside hospital

A pony wandered into Telford's Princess Royal Hospital and walked through the corridors after escaping from a nearby field. From The Shropshire Star. Read more >>

Yesterday's News >>