

HorseChannel Newswire

Alltech on the Road promotes World Equestrian Games around the country; Event horse Ringwood Cockatoo retired at age 18; Purdue University unveils new equine statue

October 20, 2009

2010 World Equestrian Games

Luncheon to Promote Equestrian Games

Southern Pines resident J. Michael Plumb, an eight-time Olympian and the only equestrian to be inducted into the Olympic Hall of Fame, will be the featured guest at a luncheon to promote the Alltech FEI World Equestrian Games 2010. From The Pilot. Read more >>

Equestrian Sport

Bettina Hoy retires Ringwood Cockatoo from competition

Bettina Hoy retired top eventer Ringwood Cockatoo in a special ceremony at the Dutch CCI***, Boekelo, last weekend. He is 18 years old. From Horse and Hound. Read more >>

Equine Welfare

Rescue Ride: Community Raises $3,000 for Worthy Cause

The United States Equine Rescue League's (USERL) third annual Ride for the Horse trail ride benefit was held last Sunday at Moor Meadow in the Walthour-Moss Foundation in Vass. From The Pilot. Read more >>

In Other News

Horse law

Kelly B. LaPar, a member of the litigation team at the law firm of Sands Anderson Marks & Miller, P.C. with a focus on equine law, will present an informative talk on Virginia's Equine Activity Liability Act on November 5, 2009, at 7:00 p.m. at the facilities of Campbell Springs Farm in Chesterfield, practice chair Jeffrey H. Geiger announced today. From Richmond BizSense. Read more >>

Equine sculpture revealed at Purdue

You could call the newest piece of artwork on Purdue's campus a horse of a different color. From WLFI. Read more >>

Kentucky Horse Council Provides Seminar For Future Horse Owners In Central Kentucky

Horse interested people in the Central Kentucky area will have an opportunity to determine if horse ownership is right for them through an informational seminar on November 5, 2009 at Brumfield Hay and Grain in Lexington. From The Kentucky Horse Park. Read more >>

Yesterday's News >>