

HorseChannel Newswire

USEF announces eventing developing riders list; Research helps working horses and donkeys in third-world countries; Battle over equine dentistry continues in Oklahoma

November 7, 2009

Equestrian Sport

UPHA American Royal National Championship to host USEF Saddle Seat Medal Final

The United States Equestrian Federation's Saddle Seat Medal Final will be held Saturday, November 21, 2009, at the United Professional Horsemen's Association's American Royal National Championship in Kansas City, MO. From USEF. Read more >>

USEF Announces 2010 Eventing Developing Riders

The United States Equestrian Federation (USEF) Eventing High Performance program congratulates the following horse and rider combinations for their acceptance into the 2010 Developing Rider Program. From USEF. Read more >>

Equine Welfare

Doing the Donkey Work: Using Science to Improve Working Equine Welfare in Developing Countries

Think of an equine. Images of an animal peacefully grazing on pasture might come to mind. From Horse Canada. Read more >>

In Other News

Equine dentistry offense studied by Oklahoma House panel

Equine dentists should continue to face criminal charges for working on horses unless they are under the supervision of licensed veterinarians, a legislator told a House committee Thursday. From NewsOK. Read more >>

Tails cut off horses at stables

Seven horses at stables in East Sussex have had their tails cut off. From BBC News. Read more >>

Yesterday's News >>