

HorseChannel Newswire

World Equestrian Games still seeking volunteers; FEI will address horse doping problems this week; Missing Georgia horse found in ditch

November 18, 2009

2010 World Equestrian Games

Volunteers Needed For World Equestrian Games

The 2010 Alltech FEI World Equestrian Games are less than a year away and event coordinators are looking for local volunteers for the event. From WFPL. Read more >>

Equestrian Sport

FEI seeks to end horse sport's Olympics drug problems, set to vote in new anti-doping program

International Equestrian Federation members will vote this week on cleaning up their sport's persistent drug problems. From The Canadian Press. Read more >>

FEI members reject Princess Haya's modernizing bid

International Equestrian Federation members have rejected their president Princess Haya of Jordan's request for a smaller executive panel to run the organization. From USA Today. Read more >>

In Other News

Blind love and the birth of a champion

Josie Forbes walks toward the stall of her 3-year-old saddlebred champion and, before he can see her, he knows she's coming. The ears perk. The head turns. The eyes shine. From The Lexington Herald-Leader. Read more >>

Owner finds horse in ditch

Friends and family rescued a missing horse in Terrell County. From WALB. Read more >>

I'm A Celebrity TV show outrage over swimming horses

Horse lovers have expressed their outrage after four horses were forced to swim across a river with celebrities on their backs in the new series of I'm A Celebrity: Get Me Out Of Here. From Horse and Hound. Read more >>

Yesterday's News >>