

HorseChannel Newswire

Tips to help plan your trip to the World Equestrian Games; Debbie McDonald named USEF Developing Dressage Coach; Runaway horses on roadway cause accidents in Virginia

January 23, 2010

2010 Alltech FEI World Equestrian Games

Top 10 Travel Tips for the 2010 Alltech World Equestrian Games
From AQHA. Read more >>

Equestrian Sport

Debbie McDonald to Lead USEF Developing Dressage Program
Olympic superstar, Debbie McDonald, has taken on the role of USEF Developing Dressage Coach for the United States Equestrian Federation. From USEF. Read more >>

Important Information for Reining Young Riders
Attention Reining Young Riders! The Adequan© USEF Youth Reining National Championship will once again take place at the NRHA Futurity, in Oklahoma City on June 26th, 2010. From USEF. Read more >>

Equine Welfare

Over 100 neglected horses rescued in Linn Co.
It's one of the largest animal rescues this Linn County community about 20 miles east of Stayton has ever seen. From KATU. Read more >>

In Other News

Carnival time at Winter Equestrian Festival
Jugglers and show jumpers? Might seem an odd mix, but it's a recipe that organizers of the FTI Winter Equestrian Festival hope will attract a more diverse audience. From The Sun-Sentinel. Read more >>

Runaway horses cause car crashes
A group of runaway horses caused a series of car crashes in Isle of Wight County Wednesday evening near Carrsville, Va. From Fox43 TV. Read more >>

Yesterday's News >>