

HorseChannel Newswire

Racetrack will give away Rachel Alexandra and Zenyatta trading cards; Entries up at National Stock Horse Association Show; Enter the Appaloosa Horse Club greeting card contest

February 26, 2010

Racing News

Track to give away Rachel-Zenyatta trading cards

Tourism officials in Hot Springs, Ark., say 50,000 trading cards of Rachel Alexandra and Zenyatta are being produced in the buildup to the greatly-anticipated showdown between star female horses at Oaklawn Park. From The San Francisco Chronicle. Read more >>

In Other News

'Nip/Tuck' star has a beef with Franken over horses

"Nip/Tuck" star Kelly Carlson thought Sen. Al Franken lacked something in the sensitivity department on the issue of horse slaughtering. From The Star-Tribune. Read more >>

Horse industry's rough ride: equine enthusiasts coping with a tough economy

As preparations began for this week's National Stock Horse Association show at the International Agri-Center, organizers expected to see a decline in the number of horses and riders taking part. From The Visalia Times-Delta. Read more >>

Kentucky Equine Research to Host Nutrition Conference

World-renowned equine nutritionists and veterinarians have been tapped to speak at the 17th Kentucky Equine Research Nutrition Conference, to be held April 26-27, 2010, in Lexington, KY. From USEF. Read more >>

Appaloosa Horse Club Announces Holiday Greeting Card Contest

The Appaloosa Horse Club (ApHC) gave members and enthusiasts the option to spread more holiday cheer this year with Appaloosa holiday greeting cards! From ApHC. Read more >>

Yesterday's News >>