

USEF Names Para-Equestrian Replacement for Alltech FEI World Equestrian Games

Fifth-ranked Holly Bergay withdrew her horse from competition for veterinary reasons.

USEF Press Release

September 1, 2010

Short listed Para-Equestrian athlete Holly Bergay has had to withdraw her horse, Grand Ballerina, from consideration for the 2010 Alltech FEI World Equestrian Games. Per the USEF Selection Procedure for the US Para-Equestrian Team, this horse rider combination has been replaced and Erin Alberda (Woodinville, WA) has moved up into the tenth spot on the ranking with Delectari.

Ten horse/rider combinations will represent the United States in Para-Equestrian at the Kentucky Horse Park during the World Games held September 25-October 10. This marks the first time that Para-Equestrian has been held as part of the World Equestrian Games.

Read all World Equestrian Games Para-Dressage news >>

Keep up with the latest World Equestrian Games news with HorseChannel.com's exclusive WEG newsletter. Subscribe now >>