

Arabian Horse Members Buckle Up

Western buckle and jewelry needs are now available through Montana Silversmiths.

07-27-2007

The Arabian Horse Association (AHA) is aligning itself with another corporate partner. Montana Silversmiths has been given the title of the Official Silversmith of AHA. With 30 years of experience, Montana Silversmiths is widely considered the leading western buckle and jewelry manufacturer in the western industry. The company really is headquartered in Montana. Its production facility is located on the southern edge of Columbus, Mont., and within a few feet of the Yellowstone River. AHA members will soon be able to shop the full line of Montana Silversmiths' products directly from the homepage of www.arabianhorses.org.
