

HorseChannel Newswire

Stay up-to-date with the latest horse news from all around the country (06-29-07).

06-29-2007

Kentucky racing officials target trainer

A trainer with three stables of 75 horses at Keeneland is being investigated, from MSNBC.com. Read more >>

Norman, Okla., boy dies after mishap with horse

A 12-year-old Norman, Okla., boy was fatally injured Wednesday when a horse he was leading apparently knocked him down and stepped on him, from The Norman Transcript. Read more >>

Horse Kills 84-Year-Old Man

An elderly man was trampled to death by a horse this week in Southeast Bexar County, Texas, from WOAI.com. Read more >>

Police horse injured

A police horse was injured Monday afternoon during a chase of two men who cops believed were making off with stolen bicycles, police say, from The Jersey Journal. Read more >>

EquiSpirit Horse Trailers Issues Warning on Internet Scam

Tom Scheve, CEO of EquiInternational Inc./EquiSpirit Trailers, comments on Nigerian Internet fraud and its new spin with horse trailer sales, from PRWeb. Read more >>

National Horse Progress Days return to Arcola Amish farm

Willis Schrock can't afford to horse around. The Amish farmer is serving as "teamster" for the 14th Annual Draft Horse & Mule Progress Days, which means he must recruit and keep track of the 80 or so draft horses, mules and oxen for this weekend's national event, from jg-tc.com. Read more >>