

HorseChannel Newswire

Stay up-to-date with the latest horse news from all around the country (07-06-07).

07-06-2007

Kentucky Grants approved for horse charities

Thoroughbred Charities of America approved grants of $1,564,400 to 149 non-profits in the charitable work of Thoroughbred Rescue, Research, Backstretch, Education and Therapeutic Riding, in 28 states, from the Lexington Herald-Leader. Read more >>

Horse Killing Case Headed For Grand Jury

The case against a man suspected in the killing of a horse will be bound over to a grand jury, from NBC13.com. Read more >>

Horse Trader Charged

A Lapeer County, Mich., horse trader was charged with illegally importing a horse into Michigan and violating a quarantine order, from WOODTV.com. Read more >>

Horse Ride Protest Comes to an End

Independence Day means celebrating freedom for most people, but for one man it usually means fighting a law he thinks is unfair, until this year, from WECT.com. Read more >>