

HorseChannel Newswire

Stay up-to-date with the latest horse news from all around the country (08-18-07).

08-18-2007

Integrity in Sport: FEI Undertakes Ethical Compliance Audit

Money makes the world go round, they say. It does indeed, and this certainly is true of the world of sport, from the USEF. Read more >>

Horse flu forces indefinite cancellation of races in Japan

An outbreak of equine influenza has forced the Japan Racing Association to cancel horse races on Saturday and Sunday, local media reported, from India Daily. Read more >>

Horse-and-wagon accident occurs during picnic

Nine people were taken to hospitals on Thursday following an accident involving a horse and wagon at the Bradford County Manor in Pennsylvania, The Daily & Sunday Review. Read more >>

USDA Proposes Rules for Importation of Non-Competitive Entertainment Horses from Countries Affected with CEM

The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) is proposing to amend existing regulations to allow non-competitive entertainment horses to be temporarily imported from countries affected with the venereal disease Contagious Equine Metritis (CEM), from the USEF. Read more >>

Montana's new horse testing rule deadline extended

The grace period for Montana's new horse testing rule has been extended to Sept. 7, from the Iowa Farmer today. Read more >>