

The HorseChannel Newswire Updated: 08-29-2007

Stay up-to-date with the latest horse news.

Posted: August 29, 2007, 5 a.m. EST

N.H. horse dies of Triple E

A horse in Kensington, N.H., has died from Eastern Equine Encephalitis, from the Boston Globe. Read More >>

West Nile Virus confirmed in Fresno County horse

A young horse in Fresno County tested positive for West Nile virus. The test was confirmed by Fresno County Health Department and California Department of Food and Agriculture. It was Fresno County's first case of WNV in a horse this year, from the Madera Tribune. Read More >>

Wellington developer settles suit over horse show grounds

Two warring factions have settled their lawsuit over the future ownership of the horse show grounds, from the Palm Beach Post. Read More >>

Police find severed horse head buried

Fort Worth, Texas, police were investigating how a severed horse head wound up buried on the property of an 84-year-old woman, from The Dallas Morning News. Read More >>

Officer Says He Failed Horse In Crash

A day after a driver struck him and his horse in Ybor City, mounted patrol Officer Salvatore Mazza couldn't help but kick himself, from TBO.com. Read More >>

Once a horse-friendly town, Scottsdale loaded with ranch conversions

Luxury homes are replacing corrals in Scottsdale, Ariz., neighborhoods where horse properties once flourished, from the Scottsdale Republic. Read More >>