

HorseChannel Newswire

Stay up-to-date with the latest horse news from all around the country (09-26-07).

09-26-2007

Fight over Wellington show grounds could hinder this season's horse shows

The horse shows appear to be in peril yet again. After months of threatening to leave town if the village didn't approve their new show grounds, Stadium Jumping is facing a more immediate threat to its world-class, economy-boosting shows, from the Sun-Sentinel. Read more >>

Trainers fear fight for horse flu shots

A Melbourne horse trainer says it is going to be a fight between stables for access to the horse flu vaccine, from ABC News. Read more >>

Jesse James was sued in 1870 over horse

A Missouri lawyer has discovered documents detailing what is believed to be the only successful lawsuit brought against the 19th century gunslinger Jesse James, from UPI. Read more >>

OKC Blazers coach stops runaway horse by biting its ear

The coach of Oklahoma City's minor-league hockey team helped prevent a possible stampede of Belgian horses at the Oklahoma State Fair by biting one of the animals on its ear, from Tulsa World. Read more >>

New Ways to Find NRHA Approved Events Near You

New from the National Reining Horse Association (NRHA), an easier way to locate NRHA approved events at www.nrha.com, from the NRHA. Read more >>