

HorseChannel Newswire

Stay up-to-date with the latest horse news from all around the country (11-21-07).

11-21-2007

Horse died of natural causes, not mutilation

A horse found dead on a Long Prairie farm died of natural causes, not mutilation, according to an investigation by the Todd County Sheriff's office, from KARE11.com. Read more >>

Woman wants horse back, no questions asked

Lane Starling believes a horse thief stole her 3 1/2-year-old chestnut filly, Brandi, from Inside Bay Area. Read more >>

Shooting On Pittsburgh-Area Farm Severly Injures Horse

A local woman's horse was shot in the eye, head and chest at a farm on Laughlin Farm Road in Derry Township, Westmoreland County, from WPXI.com. Read more >>

Todd Bergen Becomes NRCHA Million Dollar Rider

Todd Bergen, of Eagle Point, Oregon, traveled to the National Reined Cow Horse Association Snaffle Bit Futurity with lifetime earnings approximately $63,000 shy of the magic number needed to join the elite group of NRCHA Million Dollar Riders, from the NRCHA. Read more >>

Sheriff Wants Deputies, Travelers To Horse Around

This holiday season, travelers in and out of Sacramento International Airport will be doing a lot of double takes at some new security, from Yahoo. Read more >>