

HorseChannel Newswire

Stay up-to-date with the latest horse news from all around the country (12-08-07).

12-08-2007

British Government claims the Hunting Act is effective

The Government has responded to an e-petition calling for the repeal of the Hunting Act, saying it is satisfied that the law is effective, from Horse and Hound. Read more >>

Horse survives accidental plunge into frozen pool

A horse was rescued after accidentally taking an icy plunge in a swimming pool, from The Boston Globe. Read more >>

Horse park dealt setback

A University of Maryland, College Park official delivered a major blow this week to hopes of locating a state-sponsored horse park on a 900-acre farm in central Howard County, but members of a citizens task force haven't given up exploring the idea, from the Baltimore Sun. Read more >>

Owner of neglected horse gets 100 hours

A District Court judge sentenced a man accused of neglecting his horse to 100 hours of community service Wednesday for misdemeanor animal cruelty, from The Garden Island. Read more >>

G10 Eventing Summit Audio Broadcast Live on USEventing.com

If you aren't fortunate enough to attend this year's United States Eventing Association's Annual Meeting and Convention, presented by Nutrena, in Colorado Springs, you can still listen in on the action at the pinnacle forum: the G10 Summit. The USEA's Group of 10 (G10), a day-long national forum for the ten Areas of the United States, will be held on Saturday, December 8, beginning at 8 a.m. MST, from the USEF. Read more >>

2008 Wellpride United States Eventing Association American Eventing Championships Qualifications Announced

For everyone aiming for the 2008 Wellpride United States Eventing Association (USEA) American Eventing Championships (AEC), the qualifications are now available on the USEA website, www.useventing.com, from the USEF. Read more >>

2007 Los Angeles National Crowns Champions at Final Show of the Year

As the final major "A" show on the West Coast circuit, the Los Angeles National (November 14-18) attracted a record number of entries, from the USEF. Read more >>

Special Exhibitions at 124th National Horse Show and Family Festival Bring Variety and Panache to the Rolex/USEF National Show Jumping Championships

Every year, the National Horse Show and Family Festival brings some of the most interesting and unique equestrian exhibitions to crowds in Wellington, from the USEF. Read more >>