

HorseChannel Newswire

Stay up-to-date with the latest horse news from all around the country (01-10-2008).

01-10-2008

Charges expected to be filed against horse owner

Deputies say they expect to file charges against the owner of a horse rescue shelter who had 27 animals seized by the sheriff's office last month, from 9News. Read more >>

Seized animals not up for adoption; owner pays nearly $10,000

The 27 animals seized Dec. 29 from a horse rescue outside Wellington, Colo., did not go up for adoption Tuesday after the owner of the rescue raised nearly $10,000 to keep them, from the Coloradoan. Read more >>

AHC supports changes to horse slaughter regulations

The American Horse Council has issued a statement of support for the United States Department of Agriculture's proposal to amend regulations governing the commercial transportation of horses for slaughter, from Thoroughbred Times. Read more >>

American Quarter Horses Slide Onto NBC Sports on January 12

American Quarter Horses return to the small screen on January 12 for a national telecast on NBC Sports, from AQHA. Read more >>

Equestrian Performers Gear Up to Perform at the EQUUS Equestrian Idol

The competition is guaranteed to be stiff at the EQUUS Equestrian Idol Musical Talent Show on Saturday, February 9, 2008, on the showgrounds of the Winter Equestrian Festival in Wellington, Florida, from Phelps Media Group. Read more >>

A Look Inside a Horse's Stomach

The latest and greatest technology in animal medicine has made its way to Eastern Idaho, from Channel 3 Eyewitness News. Read more >>