

HorseChannel Newswire

Stay up-to-date with the latest horse news from all around the country (02-20-2008).

02-20-2008

Frontrunners prevail in the NCHA World Finals
Bobcorn and Bubba take titles, from the NCHA. Read more >>

Horse shows, some stables still thrive
Not all businesses that deal with horses are struggling right now, from the York Daily Record. Read more >>

Owners mourn death of horse killed by car in Davie
It happens less than you might think. But when it does, it sends a shudder through the region's equestrian community, from the Sun-Sentinel. Read more >>

Bittersweet End To Horse Search And Rescue
After hours of searching, crews in Cambria County, Pa., found three missing horses alive and one dead, from WJACTV. Read more >>

Students use day off to work on Norco horse trails
Here is a math problem: If 30 teenagers and four adults spend two hours cleaning up horse trails in Norco, Calif., on a day off from school, how many bags of trash and debris will they collect? from the Press-Enterprise. Read more >>

Beloved patrol horse remembered
It has been almost three months since Skylar was euthanized, but Jennifer Csatari still refers to the horse in present tense at times, from The Daily Targum. Read more >>

Middleburg's Fox Chase Farm Refocuses Business To Horse Shows
In 2000, Maureen Hanley's broadcasting career at National Public Radio's "All Things Considered" came to a halt. Burnt out, she needed a change, from Leesburg Today. Read more >>