

HorseChannel Newswire

Stay up-to-date with the latest horse news from all around the country (03-18-2008).

03-18-2008

Mission 007 Brings Focus to Yearling Mustangs

The Mustang Heritage Foundation (MHF) has a new mission: to place for adoption more than 200 yearling Mustangs while at the same time providing educational funding to youth, as well as cash prizes to adults in the program, from AHP. Read more >>

Manage horse grazing on small acreages

How to manage horse grazing on small acreages is being offered in Buffalo and Sheridan in March and April by the Small Acreage Issue Team of the University of Wyoming Cooperative Extension Service (UW CES), from The Greeley Tribune. Read more >>

Homage to a Snow Horse

Every year, a white horse appears high in the Wasatch Mountains and then fades away, from StandardNet. Read more >>

Hells Angel Barger shares life with hogs, horses

Sonny Barger spends as much time these days on his horse as his hog, from Yahoo. Read more >>

AQHA Releases Free "Owning Your First American Quarter Horse" DVD

The American Quarter Horse Association releases its newest DVD to address questions that accompany the exciting decision to buy your first American Quarter Horse, from the AQHA. Read more >>

Jane Savoie and JumpsWest Team Up to bring "A Happy Horse" to your home

Three Time Olympic coach finally reveals her secrets for training with her new Video Series "A Happy Horse," from AHP. Read more >>