

HorseChannel Newswire

Stay up-to-date with the latest horse news from all around the country (03-21-2008).

03-21-2008

Beezie Madden and Authentic Win $200,000 CN WorldWide Grand Prix

In a dramatic jump-off featuring the best show jumping athletes in the world, Beezie Madden of Cazenovia, NY, and Authentic claimed victory in the $200,000 CN WorldWide Grand Prix during week nine, the CSI*W CN WorldWide, of the CN Winter Equestrian Festival, presented by Zimmerman Advertising, at the Palm Beach International Equestrian Center, from the USEF. Read more >>

Richard Spooner and Cristallo Win the $200,000 Invitational Grand Prix of the Desert to Close out the 2008 HITS Desert Circuit

Richard Spooner has won a lot of grand prix classes in his career, from the USEF. Read more >>

King and Hannigan Head to Holland for the 2008 FEI World Cup™ Dressage Final

Following the final North American League qualifying competitions in Loxahatchee, Florida and Burbank, California, two horses and riders have been named to represent the United States at the 2008 FEI World Cup™ Dressage Final in Hertogenbosch, The Netherlands, on March 27 – 30, from the USEF. Read more >>

Maggie McAlary Wins Inaugural George H. Morris Excellence in Equitation

With the glamour and pressure of riding before judges of Olympians under lights in the International Arena, Maggie McAlary won the inaugural George H. Morris Excellence in Equitation at the CN Winter Equestrian Festival presented by Zimmerman Advertising last Friday night, from the USEF. Read more >>

Update on Baron Verdi

Although the fall suffered by Darren Chiacchia and Baron Verdi at the fifth jump at Red Hills Horse Trials on March 15 was a full-blown rotational fall, Baron stood up immediately and was overtly intact, from New Spring Farm. Read more >>

A Message from USEA President Kevin Baumgardner

Eventers everywhere are deeply saddened by the accidents that occurred this past weekend at the Red Hills Horse Trials in Tallahassee, Florida, from the USEA. Read more >>

Spur arena scores national horse event

The 1st Community Credit Union Spur Arena made San Angelo, Texas, an easy sale, from Go San Angelo. Read more >>

Horses Killed in Interstate Mishap

Three horses were struck and killed this morning on Interstate 81 in Susquehanna County, Penn., from WNEP. Read more >>

Horse crematorium controversy

A horse crematorium controversy is brewing tonight in Connecticut, from WTNH. Read more >>