

HorseChannel Newswire

Stay up-to-date with the latest horse news from all around the country (04-16-2008).

04-16-2008

Horse found abused, wandering streets

Melinda Schaffer says about a week ago, someone broke into a barn and stole her horse, Phantom out of his stable, from CBS 47. Read more >>

Births bring new life to horse farm hit by fire

The filly, Phoenix, rests in the corner of her stable, from the Atlanta Journal-Constitution. Read more >>

Man, horse die in New Zealand lightning strike

A man and his horse have died after being struck by lightning in northern New Zealand, from Yahoo. Read more >>

Carolina breeders try to save gentle, tough marsh tacky horses

During centuries of isolation on the Carolina sea islands, the short-legged, sway-backed marsh tacky horses became perfectly suited for toiling long hours in the swamps and oppressive humidity, from The State. Read more >>

From a humble start to cutting big checks

The National Cutting Horse Association Super Stakes is a 20-day show that offers competitors $3.2 million, from the Star-Telegram. Read more >>