

HorseChannel Newswire

Reining legend Craig Johnson hits million-dollar mark; National Snaffle Bit Association offers hunter classes in 2009; American Morgan Horse Pavilion to be constructed at Ky. Horse Park

October 28, 2008

Equestrian Sport

Johnson is newest NRHA millionaire

The World Wealth Report by Merrill Lynch/Capgemini estimates that only .15% of the world's population have achieved "millionaire" status, from the NRHA. Read more >>

New disciplines in 2009 - Working Hunter and Hunter Hack

The National Snaffle Bit Association is proud to announce the addition of the working hunter and hunter hack disciplines, from the NSBA. Read more >>

5 Way Tie

After five rounds of competition in this evening's feature competition, the $15,000 Beaver Drilling Puissance, it was decided that a five way tie for first place could not be broken, from Hunter Jumper News. Read more >>

Industry News

AMHI Board Approves American Morgan Horse Pavilion at Kentucky Horse Park

The American Morgan Horse Institute (AMHI) Board of Trustees today adopted a resolution to build an American Morgan Horse Pavilion at the Kentucky Horse Park with a targeted opening of Spring 2010, from the AMHA. Read more >>

USRider Teams with EKU to Offer Animal Rescue Training

USRider and Eastern Kentucky University (EKU) are partnering for the fifth annual large-animal emergency rescue training course, from AHP. Read more >>