

HorseChannel Newswire

FOSH organizes 2nd Sound Horse Conference; Feed store offers old-time shopping experience; Traveling by horse makes sense for rural woman

November 1, 2008

Making Headlines

FOSH Organizes Second Sound Horse Conference

Friends of Sound Horses (FOSH) has announced the details of the second national conference to focus on ending soring of Walking Horses and all gaited horse breeds, from FOSH. Read more >>

$17,000 reward offer in killing of Livermore horses

A $17,000 reward is being offered for information leading to the conviction of whoever shot and killed two horses at a ranch near Livermore, Calif., authorities said Thursday, from the San Francisco Chronicle. Read more >>

'Horse Mad' Girl Crushed At Rally

Tributes have been paid to a "horse mad" 15-year-old girl who was crushed to death at a Pony Club rally, from Yahoo. Read more >>

Human Interest

Traveling via horse makes sense for rural woman

One horsepower means everything to Judi Tomlin of rural Bloomfield, Iowa, from the Ottumwa Courier. Read more >>

Lake Co., Ill., store offers a truly old-school shopping experience

You can imagine horse upon horse being tied up outside Wadsworth Feed & Saddlery while the animals' owners went inside to make purchases, from the Daily Herald. Read more >>

Cicero, Ill., racetrack will be razed to make way for mall

Cicero's Sportsman's Park, a horse-racing facility that has been closed since 2003, will be demolished to make way for a shopping center, from the Chicago Tribune. Read more >>