

Polo Moves Indoors for Winter

Who says you can't play polo in the winter?

Arena polo is becoming more popular, and the Kentucky Horse Park in Lexington is just one site that hosts wintertime polo in a covered arena. There are several matches scheduled for January, and you can find the exact dates at www.kyhorsepark.com. Just click on the menu for upcoming events. To watch arena or indoor polo elsewhere, search for arena polo associations or groups. What could be more fun than sipping hot cocoa in between chukkers?
