The NRCHA Snaffle Bit Futurity will be available through webcast.

09-21-2007

If you don't want to miss a minute of the excitement but can't make it to the National Reined Cow Horse Association Snaffle Bit Futurity, you can catch the action from your computer. NRCHA official videographer, Galloping Video, will be providing a live video feed for the third consecutive year. The web cast will begin Sept. 23 and run through Oct. 7.

The show can be accessed through the NRCHA web site, www.nrcha.com or directly from the Galloping Video website, www.gallopingvideo.com beginning at 8 a.m. daily, PST. Cow horse fans can download streaming video as a high quality free view, courtesy of sponsors and advertisers who help cover the cost of the webcast.

On Oct. 5 and Oct. 6 the NRCHA Futurity Sales events will also be webcast by Galloping Video hosted at www.nrcha.com website. That web cast is sponsored by Carol Rose Quarter Horses of Gainesville, Texas.
